BRAND INFORMATION

The recipe for Luxardo London Dry Gin goes back to the famous “Ginepro di Dalmazia”, that was produced by the Luxardo family since the 1900’s. The Luxardo family has been producing a Juniper based distillate since 1833, when it first appeared on a price list of the company. Luxardo Sour Cherry Gin provides a crisp nuance to classic cocktails such as the Martinez and Gin Fizz or can be enjoyed over ice as an aperitif.
