

HINE 250TH ANNIVERSARY

JARNAC, FRANCE

PRODUCT INFORMATION

- Unique and exceptional, this cognac was hand-selected to commemorate the house's 250th anniversary
- Only 250 bottles available worldwide
- The most exquisite cognac that HINE's cellar master has ever tasted, this Grande Champagne cognac reached its peak after 60 years in oak casks
- In 1953 with the knowledge that difficult weather conditions of that year would provide this eaux-de-vie with qualities for outstanding longevity, the Hine family placed this cask in the reserve for aging
- Famed designer Andrée Putman designed the elegant Baccarat decanter to illustrate the strict discipline and the rebellious spirit of the House of HINE; Baccarat is one of the world's most prestigious makers of fine crystal
- Rich in flavor and very long lasting, this cognac possesses notes of tropical fruit, honey, apricot, dry fig, licorice, spices and cloves on the nose, as well as orange zest on the palate. The delicate use of wood creates a clean, rich and complex spirit
- 42% ABV

BRAND INFORMATION

- Internationally acclaimed for its blends, vintage and extra old cognacs, the 250-year-old cognac house takes pride in its unequalled collection of exceptional cognacs dating back to the 1800s.
- The fine and delicate style is garnered by the careful growing of grapes in cognac's most desired areas and the use of wood to enhance, not mask, the eaux-de-vie's flavors.
- HINE's artisan philosophy has led to innovations including a VSOP for mixing; single estate, single vintage cognacs; and vintages aged outside of France.
- Awarded the Royal Warrant in 1962, HINE continues to be the official cognac supplier to HRH Queen Elizabeth II of England.

BRAND STORY

In the 18th century, an English merchant sent his son Thomas Hine to France to learn the art of making cognac. There Thomas fell in love with the daughter of a famous cognac négociant. Following their marriage, Thomas joined his father-in-law's company and expanded what was to become the traditional business of HINE: making bespoke cognacs. In 1817, the company became Thomas Hine & Co. and now, more than 250 years later, the extraordinary story of the Hine family and HINE cognac continues. Known for its a sophisticated range of fine & delicate cognacs, HINE was appointed the official cognac supplier to HRH Queen Elizabeth II of England in 1962. The Royal Warrant is granted for five years and every five years HINE has been honored to have the Warrant renewed.
