

DOMAINES HINE BONNEUIL 2006

JARNAC, FRANCE

PRODUCT INFORMATION

- From a single harvest, this single vintage, single estate cognac is unique and rare
- This unblended cognac is the purest expression of the chalky terroir in Grande Champagne, the most desired growing area in Cognac
- The second in a series, the 2006 vintage's fruity and sweet tasting notes are the result of a year of mixed weather
- Released in 2017, 18 casks of this limited edition were hand-selected for bottling
- Each bottle of this collectible cognac is numbered

TASTING NOTES

Radiant and expressive lychee awakens honeyed aromas, which in turn evoke soft nougat. A subtle mineral tension that is characteristic of the young cognacs from these plots highlights notes of toasted bread and recalls a longing for mirabelle plum tart.

BRAND INFORMATION

- Internationally acclaimed for its blends, vintage and extra old cognacs, the 250-year-old cognac house takes pride in its unequalled collection of exceptional cognacs dating back to the 1800s.
- The fine and delicate style is garnered by the careful growing of grapes in cognac's most desired areas and the use of wood to enhance, not mask, the eaux-de-vie's flavors.
- HINE's artisan philosophy has led to innovations including a VSOP for mixing; single estate, single vintage cognacs; and vintages aged outside of France.
- Awarded the Royal Warrant in 1962, HINE continues to be the official cognac supplier to HRH Queen Elizabeth II of England.

BRAND STORY

In the 18th century, an English merchant sent his son Thomas Hine to France to learn the art of making cognac. There Thomas fell in love with the daughter of a famous cognac négociant. Following their marriage, Thomas joined his father-in-law's company and expanded what was to become the traditional business of HINE: making bespoke cognacs. In 1817, the company became Thomas Hine & Co. and now, more than 250 years later, the extraordinary story of the Hine family and HINE cognac continues. Known for its a sophisticated range of fine & delicate cognacs, HINE was appointed the official cognac supplier to HRH Queen Elizabeth II of England in 1962. The Royal Warrant is granted for five years and every five years HINE has been honored to have the Warrant renewed.
